

The aftermath of conflict

Managing the peace in order to avoid future conflict • Saturday 1 April 2017

Programme

09:00 Registration (tea/coffee available)

09.30 Introduction

Professor Aldwyn Cooper, Vice Chancellor
Regent's University London

09:45 Keynote Speech 1: The Rule of Law

Lord Alex Carlile of Berriew CBE, QC

10.05 Q & A

10.15 Panel Discussion Part 1: Justice Post-Conflict?

Panellists:

- Sir Hugh Orde OBE, QPM
- Sir Geoffrey Nice QC
- Marina Wheeler QC
- Sir Alan Ward

Chair: Sir Henry Brooke CMG, QC

*Panellists' presentations will be followed
by questions from the floor.*

11:15 Mid-morning break

11.45 Keynote Speech 2: African Economic Empowerment in Post Conflict Reconstruction

Lord Paul Boateng

12.15 Q & A

12.30 PAN Intercultural Arts

including Choir

13.00 LUNCH

13.45 Panel Discussion Part 2: The Human Aspect

Panellists:

- Quentin Peel (former Foreign and International Affairs Editor of the Financial Times)
- Dr Tim Ojo (Psychiatrist)
- Boyd McCleary CMG, CVO (former Ambassador)

Chair: Professor Judith Ackroyd

*Panellists' presentations will be followed
by questions from the floor.*

14.45 Voices of the Young – Post-Conflict

- Students from Flekke College, Norway
- Syrian student: Muzoon Rakan Alemellehan - Young Arab Woman of the Year
- Regent's University London student

Chair: Carole Stone CBE

15:45 Mid-afternoon break

16:00 In Conversation: Zimbabwe Then and Now

- The first phase (led by Sir Malcolm Rifkind KCMG, QC) Lessons from the Past
- The second phase (led by Senator David Coltart) The Rule of Law or the Ballot Box
- The third phase (a joint effort with audience participation) Practical Efforts to Prepare the Ground for Reconciliation

17:00 Q & A – What Next? Reflections on the Day

Paul Randolph

17:15 Close