World class location

London is the best city in the world to be a student, with access to museums, galleries, historic sites, Royal Parks, world-famous restaurants and endless opportunities to improve your English.

At Regent's, you'll be within easy reach of top London attractions like the National Gallery, Tate Britain, West End theatres and the British Museum. A short walk away is the historic Marylebone Village, known for its up-market boutiques, cafés and designer shops.

- Close to Baker Street station
- Less than an hour from most London airports
- 10 minutes from the Eurostar

Alongside classes, you'll have the chance to explore London and practice your English on walking tours of the city's top attractions.

'Studying in London gave me the opportunity to immerse myself in British culture and, as a result, my my English improved very quickly.'

Ambre Vochelet, France

Life on campus

Our secure campus is based in a quiet Royal Park in the centre of London. Set in 11 acres of private grounds, it's a safe respite from city life, with gated access and 24/7 security.

Mixing with 3,000 international students on campus, you'll make friends from around the world, learn about other cultures and build a global network.

How you'll learn

We offer a practical approach to teaching with the chance to practise your skills on the ground in one of the world's most exciting capital cities.

A personal education

Receive a personal welcome from either our Head of Regent's School of English, Monika Wierzanska-Villar, or one of your future English teachers, who will talk to you about your goals and how you can make the most out of your time at Regent's.

Learn in a supportive, international environment where staff and students get to know each other by name – getting the personal attention needed to progress quickly.

Induction on day one

Your course will start with an induction, where we show you around campus and give you information about your lessons and your schedule. We'll explain what support, facilities and activities are available to you and what you should do if you have a question or problem. We will also ensure you have access to your Regent's IT account. The induction is compulsory to all new students and there are no lessons on this day – they will start at 09:15 the following day.

Practical learning

Practise your English language skills in class, around campus and throughout London.

Classes are fun, engaging and varied, with a focus on task-based activities that promote critical thinking, problem-solving and an understanding of British culture.

New opportunities

- Access everything the University has to offer, from sweeping lawns to breakout study areas, a library, IT suites, cafes and bars
- A taste of student life – extra-curricular activities including a Conversation Club and mix with students across all degrees and nationalities
- Receive personal support from our student wellbeing team and book one-to-one sessions with friendly advisors – just like a full-time student
- Tailored induction programme built specifically for our English students
- Receive Associate Alumni status when you complete a course of 10+ weeks – giving you access to discounts, events and networking opportunities.

'Studying at Regent's School of English prior to my master's really prepared me for the academic language of University – as well getting to know the campus, academics and students. I left feeling so much more confident.'

Meryem El Hayani, Morocco.

'Regent's offers tailor-made learning support such as the Conversation Club and Language Doctor sessions, which I found really helpful. The facilities at the University are excellent too, especially the library, and I've built a network of friends across the world.'

Kanako Abe, Japan.

'Meeting people from different backgrounds and cultures, participating in activities in a purely English-speaking environment and working with teachers who truly love their work has helped to develop my confidence and improve my English skills considerably.'

Kenza Yahmi, Algeria.
